

Hundreds Cheer Area's Marchers As Sun Shines On Memorial Day

Cheering residents of Millerton lined the route of March on May 30 to watch the annual Memorial Day observances sponsored by the Millerton American Legion Post 178.

Following the Memorial services at outlying cemeteries, Legionnaires and their guests enjoyed their first breakfast cooked in their own Legion Home. Sam Greenfield was the chef assisted by Judd Silvernale, Smoky Tanner and Warren Harvey. Invited guests were Town Supervisor George Culver, Thomas Marshall, publisher of The News-Republican member of the Village Board Leon Silvernale, and member of Town Board LeRoy Kimball.

The parade which started at 10:00 a.m. included Boy Scouts, Girl Scout units, Legionnaires, Webutuck Central School Band, Firemen, Lions Club and other organizations.

Master of ceremonies was Mayor Isaac M. Deuel. The annual address at the Town Park was given by Rev. Morton Sand, pastor of the Millerton Presbyterian Church, with Justice of the Peace Walter W. Davis, offering the welcome. The invocation and benediction were offered by Rev. P. Dale Neuffer, pastor of the Millerton Methodist Church.

The Legion Firing squad and color guard participated in the services. In charge of the firing squad was Robert Campbell.

Taps were offered during the program by James Blanchard and David Garrity.

67211955