

Hubert Cleavland Named Legion Post Commader

The Millerton Post 178, American Legion held its annual meeting last Thursday evening following a dinner at Sharkey's Restaurant. Elected to succeed Richard Tanner as Commander was Hubert Cleaveland, poplar veteran of World War II. Elected as First Vice Commander, Robert Campbell; Second Vice Commander, Samuel Greenfield; Adjutant, Clarence Smith; Treasurer, William Howe; Chaplain, Rev. William Phinney; Sergeant at Arms, Edward Guptill and Service Officer, Orville E. Velley.

Following the election, the officers were installed by Past County Commander Paul Samuels who also presented a Past Commander's badge to Richard Tanner. A few remarks by Paul Samuels and County Vice Commander Hugh Dakin closed the meeting.

Commander Cleaveland advises that the meetings will be adjourned for the summer unless some pressing business comes up that cannot be rightfully taken care of by the executive committee and on such an occasion he will call a special meeting.
